Commissioner of Patents and Trademarks

This application contains sequence disclosures that are encompassed by the definitions for nucleotide and/or amino acid sequences set forth in 37 C.F.R. ' 1.821(a)(1) and (a)(2). However, this application fails to comply with the requirements of 37 C.F.R. ' 1.821 through 1.825 for the reasons noted in the attached action; applicants' attention is directed to the final rulemaking notice published at 55 FR 18230 (May 1, 1990), and 1114 OG 29 (May 15, 1990).

To be in compliance, applicants must amend the specification to include appropriate and matching SEQ ID NOs relative to the sequence listing (see attached action).

APPLICANT IS GIVEN ONE MONTH FROM THE DATE OF THIS LETTER WITHIN WHICH TO COMPLY WITH THE SEQUENCE RULES, 37 C.F.R. § 1.821-1.825. Failure to comply with these requirements will result in ABANDONMENT of the application under 37 C.F.R. § 1.821(g). Extensions of time may be obtained by filing a petition accompanied by the extension fee under the provisions of 37 C.F.R. § 1.136. In no case may an applicant extend the period for response beyond the one month statutory period. Applicant is requested to return a copy of the attached Notice to Comply with the response.

See attached action.

DETAILED ACTION

Application Status

1. In response to the previous Office action (Notice to Comply, Paper No. 14), Applicants filed a response on July 22, 2002 (Paper No. 15) that included a new sequence listing in computer readable form and paper copy. Said sequence listing has been entered.

Compliance with the Sequence Rules

2. The specification is replete with SEQ ID NOs that have not been amended to match the new SEQ ID NOs in the amended sequence listing filed July 22, 2002. For example, on page 4, lines 24-25, sequences are referred to by SEQ ID NO:3b or 11b, which no longer have basis in the sequence listing as amended. More importantly, Claims 4-6 and 9-11 cite these confusing SEQ ID NOs. The claims must appropriately recite SEQ ID NOs prior to any consideration of the claims.

Conclusion

3. In response to this Office action, Applicants must amend the specification, including the claims, to cite appropriate SEQ ID NOs as amended on July 22, 2002.
